

Where Canadian Auto Insurance Rate Regulators Converge!

Toronto, Ontario October 16-19, 2011

CARR Conference 2011

This year the CARR conference is hosted by the Financial Services Commission of Ontario in downtown Toronto at Le Meridien King Edward Hotel.

Conference topics include auto insurance fraud, U.S. trends in auto insurance rating, recent case law on auto insurance rates, jurisdictional updates and a panel of insurance company CEO's on current auto insurance issues. The 2011 CARR Conference will provide you with an opportunity to network with insurance regulators across Canada. A reception is included as well as a dinner at Toronto's historic Distillery District

Transportation

If you are travelling to Toronto by air via the Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ), it is approximately 30 minutes to the hotel (30 km). Taxis are readily available however, they charge per person. If you are travelling in groups, an Airport Limo will be more cost effective (approximately $63 per limo). The website to Toronto Pearson International Airport for ease of reference is www.gtaa.com.

If you are travelling to Toronto by air via the Billy Bishop Toronto City Airport (YTZ), it is approximately 30 minutes to the hotel (4 km) including a short ferry ride that is free of charge. Taxis are readily available. The website to Porter for ease of reference is www.flyporter.com.

What to Pack

Visitors to Toronto in October should be prepared for a variety of temperatures. Pack clothing that can be layered: long sleeve shirts; sweaters; jackets; long pants; closed-toe, comfortable shoes, boots, umbrella, sunhat and sunglasses.

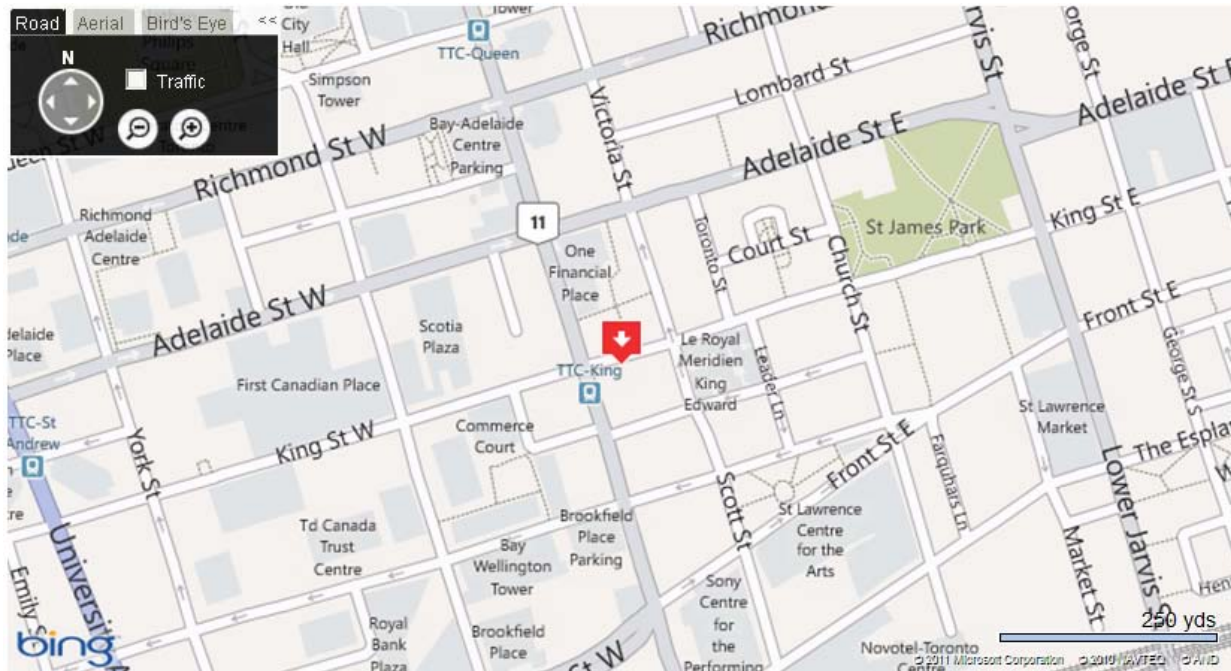

Dress for the conference is business casual.

Accommodations and Venue

Le Meridien King Edward Hotel, 37 King Street East

Toronto is one of the world's liveliest and most diverse cities, offering limitless entertainment, shopping, and sightseeing opportunities. Le Méridien King Edward is only half a block from the subway, providing easy access to all of the city's delights.

Within walking distance of the best shopping and restaurants in the city: Eaton Shopping Centre is close by, as are King Street and the chic Queen West. Visit the pride of Canada, the Hockey Hall of Fame, or the dramatic CN Tower with its glass floor, the Air Canada Centre, and Toronto's city hall, which carries a sort of chic futuristic vibe about it. The Casa Loma – an imposing castle built in 1914 for a wealthy financier – stands on a hill overlooking the city.
